JENNIE'S ACCORDIONISTS

Jenny's Accordionists was formed in the 1950's by the late Jennifer Neal. Due to the popularity of the accordion she soon had five orchestras of differing abilities, which performed all over the United Kingdom and abroad, winning numerous competitions.

Today, Jenny's Accordionists is a small group of musicians who have accrued in excess of two hundred years accordion playing between them and formed lifelong friendships though their shared love of music. The group rehearse regularly, perform concerts and continue to play the music Jenny loved.

From Frank Sinatra to Pachelbel Canon, White Christmas to the Carpenters, we enjoy playing a wide repertoire of swing, classical, showtune, festive, popular and easy listening music from around the world to suit any occasion. Many arranged (and composed) by well-known accordion figures, such as Rudolf Würthner and Adolf Götz, to take advantage of the flexibility and tone of the instrument.

In 2016 we travelled to Innsbruck to take part in the World Music Festival, gaining first place in the Advanced Ensemble Category, performing Munchner Rhapsodie which will begin our recital today.
