

COLOURFUL CHELMSFORD CATHEDRAL

Colour Me...

On the south side of the Cathedral you will find a stained glass window of four panels, telling the story of the Good Samaritan. This drawing is a simplified version of one of the panels. Study the window carefully and concentrate on getting the two figures and the donkey in the correct colours. The background can be left to your imagination.

