

COLOURFUL CHELMSFORD CATHEDRAL

Colour Me...

Outside the Cathedral, at the west end under the tower, this carving is repeated several times, but they all look very dreary in plain stone. Why not colour the drawing above with what you think they should look like? You could put some patterns either side of the shield. If you are feeling adventurous you could introduce some shading to make it more three-dimensional.