James Davy is Organist and Master of the Choristers here at Chelmsford Cathedral, where a busy and vibrant musical department is central to the daily life of the building and its worshipping community. A versatile musician with a great deal of broadcasting and recording experience, James is also pianist and Associate Conductor of the David Pickthall Big Band and Musical Director of the Chelmsford Singers.

In his spare time he enjoys training and competing his Irish Sports Horse Max, and blogging occasionally as The Eventing Organist.
