For a number of years Jenny Haxell and Roger Slade were members of the Kirckman Ensemble which mainly focused on music from the baroque period. However, after some members of the group moved away to distant parts of the country, Jenny and Roger were fortunate to join forces with Graham West to form the Cardea Trio, performing music from all eras.

Cardea was the ancient Roman Goddess of the door hinge and the trio also aim to open doors, but of a musical kind, for their audiences.
