Founded in 2014 by Josie Cowley, The Harmonaires is an amateur auditioned SATB chamber choir with between thirty five and forty singers. The choir is made up of a broad range of people of all ages and occupations - teachers, plasterers, solicitors, nurses - who share a passion for music that uplifts the spirits.

We perform throughout the year in different cathedrals across London and East Anglia, compete in choral competitions and perform public concerts in the area to raise money for local charities including our highly-anticipated and family-friendly Christmas concert. We also host The Bishop's Stortford Choral Festival each October, which brings together many different adult choirs in the region to perform to each other and together as a mass choir, whilst raising money for charity.

Today we will take you on a choral journey of uplifting music from Ola Gjeilo, John Rutter, Curtis Mayfield, Elton John and more with a perfect blend of sacred and secular music.

Welcome to Chelmsford Cathedral for this lunchtime concert.

Admission is free but we invite your contributions to cover the costs of these concerts.

Tea and coffee are available before concerts and you are most welcome to bring your own lunch: we ask that you take all packaging and leftover items home with you. The use of mobile phones, cameras and recording equipment is not permitted; please ensure that all devices are switched to silent mode.
